History

"We are not makers of History. We are made by History"

This course is good for students who:

- Enjoy reading and be prepared to investigate the events of the past

What topics will you be studying?

- The British sector of the Western Front, 1914-18; injuries, treatment and the trenches
- Medicine in Britain, c1250-present
- Anglo-Saxon and Norman England, c1060-88
- Superpower relations and the Cold War, 1941-91

What do students studying this qualification go on to do?

- Anything you like, History will teach you to investigate, interpret and analyse which will help in many future careers and studies
- A variety of university studies, including Law, Journalism, History, Archeology, Politics, Civil Service