Music

“Music is not what we do, it’s who we are”

This course is good for students who:

- Students interested in developing their knowledge and skills in musical understanding, performance and composition.
- Students must be dedicated to the subject and prepared to work hard – they will be rewarded with a great sense of achievement, a huge range of transferable skills, and a strong qualification.

What topics will you be studying?

- World Music, Western Classical Music, Film and Video Game Music, Rock and Pop Music.
- Using Music technology as part of compositions and performances.
- Composing in a range of musical styles.
- Performing with keyboard and vocal skills, as well as the option for another instrument of your choice.

What do students studying this qualification go on to do?

- Study Music or Music Technology A Level/Level 3.
- Pursue careers in the Music industry including performance, production, live sound, marketing, education.
- Continue to enjoy music as a lifelong passion and way to connect with others.